

INSTEAD OF THE LORD'S PRAYER

SILENT MEDITATION FOR SCHOOLS

The Wilmington answer to the Supreme Court decision forbidding the Lord's Prayer, or the decision, forbidding the recitation of the Lord's Prayer, or the reading of the Bible for religious purposes, may be "A moment of silent meditation before the school day begins".

George Robertie, of Woburn Street, suggested this in the School Committee meeting Monday evening.

The other members of the School Board will think over the subject, and it is to be discussed in a future meeting, probably on July 15

The Supreme Court ruling called for several observations by the School Board.

Chairman Arthur V Lynch stated that it was his opinion that the men who participated in the framing of the Constitution were not anti-religion, but merely seeking to ensure that there be no State religion.

Glenn Connolly believed that the suggestion of Robertie was within the present understanding of the law, but suggested further study 'or it could be that we will again find ourselves in the same bowl of snakes'

School Superintendent Harold Shea pointed out that the ruling may affect the annual Christmas program of the public schools, pointing out that a girl, last year, had read the Nativity as related by St. Matthew. He intends to study the ruling further, as it pertains to such Christmas programs.

BOARD OF HEALTH CLINIC JULY 2ND

The regular monthly clinic of the Wilmington Board of Health is to be held from 9:30 am to 10:30 am on July 2nd, at the Community Room, on Deming Way.

The clinic is for immunization of children against diphtheria, whooping cough and tetanus.

There will be no polio clinics until fall.

BEACH TAGS ONLY AT TOWN BEACH

'Beach tags' to identify Wilmington residents for use at the Town Beach at Silver Lake, are to be obtained at the beach, and at no other place.

Only recognized Wilmington residents and their guests may use the town beach.

The change was made this spring by order of the Planning Board. Formerly beach tags were given out by the Town Clerk, in the Town Hall.

HONORS FOR TOP STUDENTS: Top scholars of Wilmington High School, after the High School assembly of last week, pose for their pictures.

In the center four Juniors wear jackets which were given to them in recognition of their scholarship, and they are flanked by four sophomores, who were presented plaques.

BOOSTERS BOXING MATCHES MAY BE TOWN MEETING DEBATE SUBJECT.

The boxing matches, by High School youngsters, sponsored by the Wilmington Boosters, may again become a reality.

The matches were stopped last winter by the State Police, after supposedly a complaint by a Lowell resident.

TM Gerry Bouchard, Monday night, told the Selectmen that the matches could be held if the town were to adopt Sections 32 to 47 of the General Laws, Chapter 147, and that it could be voted in the annual Town Meeting.

Bouchard was instructed to write a letter to Talbot Emery of the Wilmington Boosters, advising him of the facts.

TEACHER'S MILITARY LEAVE POSES PROBLEMS

Pasquale J Spinoza, a Social Studies teacher in Wilmington High School has a three year Leave of Absence from the Wilmington Public Schools, in order that he may fulfill his military duties.

The statutes of Massachusetts provide for such a leave, with no loss of seniority or other rights, and the School Committee now has several problems.

On the suggestion of Chairman Arthur V Lynch, rulings are to be obtained as to whether or not a man who leaves for Military duties will automatically go 'On Tenure' at the end of his third year, even though he has taught in the schools only two, as Mr. Spinoza has.

The members of the school committee were quite certain that Mr Spinoza's 'increments' (annual increases in pay) would continue just as if he was teaching, but were uncertain as to the 'tenure' part of his contract.

Under Massachusetts law, a teacher who has taught for three years achieves 'tenure' and may not be discharged except for good and sufficient reason.

BOOKMOBILE

The Bookmobile will call at Hathaway Acres next Monday at 2:45 pm.

TO ENLARGE FOOTBALL FIELD BLEACHERS

The 'home' section of the High School football bleachers are to be enlarged, before the 1963 season begins, to a total capacity of 2000 spectators. They now hold 1600.

Acting on the advice of Physical Education Director Larry Cushing, the School Committee has voted to spend $794.70 for the project.

There will be an additional five rows of seats, above the present 10 rows, when the project is completed.

Cushing told the School Committee, Monday night, that Chelmsford already has the 15 rows.

The 'visitors' side has six rows of seats, and should be, sometime in the future, enlarged to have 10 rows, Cushing told the Committee.

The School Committee also voted to provide an additional 30 lockers in the Boys Locker Room, for the Freshman Football team, and 1 basket rack, complete with 35 baskets, for their athletic equipment.

The 30 lockers will cost $794.70 and the basket rack $141.75.

Tabled for a later meeting was a proposal to add a section of chain link fence to the baseball backstop, and a proposal to shift entrances in the fence surrounding the football field.

Cushing proposed that 50 feet of 42 inch chain link fence be added to the backstop.

He also proposes that the gate behind the bleachers be shut off and a new one be added, at the football field southwest corner, for the improvement of traffic control on big days during the football season.

HOUSE BILL 1607

Again New England is experiencing a dry season, as the end of June approaches.

Again the people of the lower Ipswich River valley communities are talking of providing themselves with water tank storage facilities, or some other type of reservoir.

A bill has been filed in the Legislature, House 1607, calling for a study of the watershed areas of the North Shore, by Representative John F. Dolan of Ipswich.

The legislation calls for a study, and it is expected that there will be legislation also calling for funds for the study.

The study will probably be approved. Whether or not there will be funds made available is a question.

In any event Wilmington would do well to keep an eye on the events surrounding the passage of this bill.

Justice Cotton, in the Anderson Land Court case of a few weeks ago observed that Wilmington was "25% swamp"

There are communities in the lower Ipswich which would like to keep Wilmington in that position - it provides them with a free reservoir, at the expense of the Wilmington taxpayers.

IN THE LAND OF SUPERLATIVES

Wilmington's Rotary Club, we heard with our own ears, yesterday, has achieved a record in attendance which will probably never be broken.

As most of the world knows, one of the marks
by which a Rotarian is measured is his attendance at meetings. A 100% Rotarian has never missed a weekly meeting, and there are more

Yesterday out-going president Harold Foley had a few kind words to say about the club and its members. They were very modest.

"The best club, in the best district, in the best organization in the world" were Harold's words. Of course every Rotarian recognizes the truth of the statement, although Lions and others might not agree.

Then Harold went on to reveal the clincher.
Wilmington has 61 members in its Rotary Club.

At the annual spring conference, in Swampscott, at which Wilmington was the "host" club, there were 116 present from the Wilmington Rotary.

That's what Harold told his fellow members, and they all cheered at the news.

And we believe it will be a long, long time before any other Rotary Club will have 191% of its members present at any function, let alone a district conference.

IS WILMINGTON READY FOR THE YMCA?

Is Wilmington ready to have a branch organization of the YMCA?

There was a preliminary type of meeting last week, in which this was discussed. It was decided to have a more formative meeting about August First, and that Mrs Harold Hughes of Hathaway Road should be the person to make the exact date.

There is much to be said in favor of such an organization, and there is evidence that a number of Wilmington families already participate in either the Woburn or the Wakefield YMCA.

If Wilmington were to have a branch organization it would probably be a part of a Greater Woburn YMCA. Woburn is now planning to build on 15 acres of land, off Salem Street.

But such an organization depends on the people within it. If Wilmington is to have such a branch, it must organize, it must have working members.

Perhaps August First will tell.

THE DEAF EAR OF JOHN ROBERT EVANS

This is the tale of how Nicky De Felice succeeded in getting the Planning Board to agree to an executive session, when the Planning Board didn't want to.

It was at the time that the Selectmen were covering up the Ballardvale Street Stew that their Town Manager Cicil Lancaster had left them. They had had a secret meeting at Mr. De Felice's home to decide on tactics.

Whether or not anyone knew that Bob Evans had a deaf ear was debatable, and the probability is that no one knew - for not even Bob had realized it at that time.

Since then he wears a hearing aid - but he didn't find out until the agreement had been made, and that some weeks past.

The Planning Board, it will be remembered, objected to Lancaster's plans for Ballardvale Street on several counts, and they had 336 signatures of people who would go along with them in the Town Meeting. It was a rather desperate time for Lancaster and friends.

The members of the Planning Board were unanimously resolved that there would be no executive meetings. Let the story come out - let everyone know the truth - good bad or indifferent.

TOWN NOTES

Getting Dry

Wilmington Common, Monday, was the scene of a massive lawn watering operation, as the town employees laid out pipes, and wet down the whole area.

The weather is getting dry, and there is no doubt about it.

First Peas?

Is Jonathan Rounds to win the Golden Pea Spoon award this year?
He is a grade school youngster, the son of Mr and Mrs Austin Rounds of Butters Row, and he has his own little garden, in back of daddy's house.

Jonathan called up about 10 days ago, to say that his peas were nearly ready, and last Friday (June 21) the Rounds family had peas for dinner, thanks to their son.

Each year the Town Crier has an award of an entirely mythical Golden Pea Spoon to the first nonprofessional back yard gardener who has a dinner of home grown peas.

Will it be Jonathan this year, or was there someone earlier?

Gerry's Agenda

TM Gerald Bouchard, as almost his first step after becoming Town Manager of Wilmington, instituted the preparing of a mimeographed agenda for each Selectmen's meeting. Brief and concise, it lists, among other things, items that the Selectmen have voted in previous meetings to 'put on the table' for future action.

Selectman Don Roberts of No.
Reading who visited the meeting,
saw one of them and took it home with him, to show the North Reading Selectmen.

He was particularly impressed with the paragraph about items that had been 'laid on the table'.
'That,' he said, 'is worth its weight in Gold!'

120 Days

Arthur V Lynch, Chairman of the School Committee is a gentleman who is given to conservative statements and thinking. He had something to think about, at the School Committee meeting Monday night.
A letter of resignation had been

A letter of resignation had been received from James D Considine, High School teacher. Mr. Considine is to teach in his home town - Lowell, where, the letter said, he will get many more benefits than he would receive as a Wilmington High School teacher.

Among the benefits listed was:
120 Days Sick Leave.

This led Arthur into some open-mouthed speculation. What would happen, he mused, if half a dozen or so teachers took 120 days sick leave? It would wreck the school budget, was his thought.

His last words were: '120 Days!
Two thirds of a School Year!'

Safer Subject

The School Committee, meeting
Monday night, fell into a discussion of the recent ruling of the Supreme Court on the reading of the Bible, etc., in the classrooms.

The discussion wandered a bit

And they went into the joint meeting with the Selectmen with that resolve uppermost in their minds.

Mr. De Felice moved for an executive meeting and he took the wind out of the Planning Board sails when he said "At the request of the Chairman of the Planning Board".

The Planning Board members looked at Bob Evans, who sat, immovable, and said nothing.

What they didn't know, and what Bob Didn't know, was that Bob was deaf in the ear that was next to Nicky, and Bob never heard that remark.

And that was how the Ballardvale Street Stew was settled in an executive meeting.

ROTARY MAN OF THE YEAR: JOHN CAFISO, of the Silver Lake Hardware, was flabbergasted when he learned that he had received the unexpected honor of receiving a 'Man of the Year' award, for his quiet devotion to club duties. All he could say was "I'll say something later!"

Presenting the plaque to John is Harold Foley, of the Shamrock, and behind John is escort Fred D Cain, incoming president. Nearer the camera is Sergeant at Arms Sumner Foster, of the Charles River Breeding Laboratories.

OUCH! was the immortal words of Fred D Cain, when Governor Bill Stevens pinned on him the badge of President of the Wilmington Rotary. Fred is the 17th president, and his dad, Fred F., seated in back of the hall, was proud as a peacock. Fred F was the first president of Wilmington's club.

HENRY PORTER WAS HONORED TOO: Postmaster Henry Porter was given a plaque, at the luncheon yesterday at the Rotary Club, by President Harold Foley, which honored him for his devotion and service to the club.

LETTER

June 26, 1963

Dear Larz:

As this year's candidate to Massachusetts Girls' State, I would sincerely like to thank the Wilmington American Legion Auxiliary for giving me the most wonderful and beneficial week of my life. I could not enumerate all the experiences of this week because this article is not long enough.

Although we learned about many phases of politics, Girls' State's main objective was to teach us good government. To this end we were drilled continuously by the many famous personages in the political area, who came on a voluntary basis to give us the benefit of their knowledge and experience.

Mrs. Endicott Peabody, First Lady of the Commonwealth, Lt. Governor Francis X. Bellotti, Senators John F. Parker and Mary L. Fonesco, Representative Mary B. Newman, and Mrs. Margaret Heckler of the Governor's Council headed the list of prominent speakers.

Girls' State was not all work. We were allowed free time to participate in athletics, newspaper or glee club, to name a few.

The friends I made there I know are going to last a lifetime. Already we have planned a reunion.

Again may I say a sincere and heartfelt thank you to all those who made this past week possible. I am sure it has given me greater insight into our government and I, as an American, will in the future proudly attend to my civic duties.

Sincerely,
Barbara Burnham

RICKY FROTON BASEBALL BAT FOR LITTLE LEAGUE INDIANS

Ricky Froton, the star pitcher who led the Wilmington High School team to its State Co-Championship last year, spent Monday in Wilmington, his first day at home since March 17th when he left for spring training in Florida.

Now pitching for the Wellsville (NY) Red Sox, Ricky brought home a present for his old Little League team - the Indians, for whom he played for four years.

It was with the Indians that he got his first pitching experience - and pitched two No-Hitters, before going on to earn fame as the Pitcher of the Wilmington High School team. Ricky batted .650 in his last year with the Indians, a feat that he attributes to the coaching of Sgt. 'Boo' Shepard of the Wilmington Police. Boo and Bob Baker were the coaches for the Indians then, and Ricky was still on the team when Ed Sullivan, now coaching, joined.

School baseball, Ricky has learned.

'Every man I pitch to is as good as the best man I ever faced on a High School mound' Ricky says, only most of them are better!

Ricky has changed his pitching stance, since leaving Wilmington. Charlie Wagner was the man who got Ricky to change.

'The funniest guy I ever met' says Ricky.

Charlie taught Ricky to deliver with a straight-throw pitch instead of the 'side-arm winder' to use Ricky's phrase, that he used to use. Wilmington fans never thought of Ricky's pitching as being 'Side-arm' but now he comes right out straight from the shoulder 'as though I was going to hit a fellow in the jaw'.

Ricky so far has pitched in 8 games, and his record is 2 wins and 1 loss, with an Earned Run Average of 3.07. He has the lowest number of Walks allowed, in the

WILMINGTON GOLDEN AGE CLUB

It has been reported that the Wilmington Golden Age Club receives financial assistance from the town of Wilmington ($250). This is not so. The Council for the Aging, which is a committee appointed by the Town Manager receives money for the committee expenses, but none of it goes to the Golden Age Club.

The Golden Age Club has built up its own treasury, and plans to use it for the entertainment and service of its members.

Through the courtesy of the American Legion, Post 136, the Golden Agers held their first meetings at Legion Hall. Later the Rev. Terry Clay Thomason invited them to meet in the Educational Building of the Methodist Church, where the club still meets.

There is to be a bus ride to Salem Willows on July 6th. The bus will leave Weinbergs at 9:30 am. Members are asked to wear their badges. The ride is to be free for all members.

The next meeting of the club is to be at 1:30 pm July 2nd in the Methodist Educational Building.

MASS ENDS YEAR OF STUDY FOR CATHOLIC CHILDREN

Saturday morning 600 children attended the 9:00 Mass at St. Thomas Church along with their parents to mark the end of the 1962-1963 Elementary School of Religion. Fr. Berube, director of the Confraternity of Christian Doctrine celebrated the Mass and later gave out the special rewards to 303 children who received outstanding marks for study, effort, attendance and good behavior.

The children, along with their parents were served breakfast at Villanova Hall. Grade 3 presented a short play, Father Croke, the Pastor then encouraged the children to keep planted in their hearts the lessons they learned during the year.

Willard C. Arnold, Minister of Visitation.

league (6) and has pitched 49 1/3 innings and had 45 strikeouts.

The Wellsville Red Sox are on the top of the Appalachian League, with the Auburn Mets in second place. Other teams in the league are the Geneva Senators, the Batavia Pirates, the Jamestown Tigers and the Erie Twins. Erie shellacked Wellsville in the last two games, 8-2 and 8-0, but Ricky wasn't pitching.

The Wellsville team has a busy schedule, a game every night, six days a week, and two games on Sunday. Most of the players are about the same age as Ricky (19).

Ricky is living in Wellsville, at 195 Farnum Street.

GEORGE AND THE BASEBALL BAT: Ricky Froton, as his first duty on arriving home, paid a call on Hizzonner, George Spanos, honorary mayor of Wilmington, and showed him the Froton Slugger which Ricky is giving to his former Little League team.

Ricky's present for the Indians is a personalized baseball bat. It is a 30 ounce bat, model S-100, 34 inches long, and named the 'Froton Slugger'.

'If Boo could see my hitting now he would disown me!' Ricky says. He wouldn't tell what his batting average was, but admitted that 'I still have trouble hitting a curve'.

My hitting is terrible, and I know it!

Ricky was watching Bobby Doerr the old Cleveland Second Base player, just last week, as Doerr was coaching the Wellsville Short Stop, and thinks he has picked up a trick or two in his batting stance, so that he has hopes of improving.

Playing in the Appalachian League is not the same as playing High

NORTH READING SELECTMAN WANTS LIGHT RATE STUDY

Selectman Don Roberts of North Reading was a guest of the Wilmington board of Selectmen Monday night.

Mr Roberts, who is the newest member of the North Reading board wanted to institute a study on electric light and power rates, by the Selectmen of his town, Lynnfield and Wilmington.

The Selectman has been campaigning for four years to have the electric light rates studied.

Mr Roberts told the Wilmington Selectmen that there were homes in North Reading that were paying $60 or $70 a month for their electricity. This was not the case in his own home he said, he pays in the vicinity of $16.

He felt that the present rates were perhaps off balance, as of four or five years, and that the Town of Reading Municipal Light Department, which serves all three towns in addition to Reading, was 'making a lot of money and spending it as fast as they could'.

The law, he told the Wilmington selectmen, says that any 20 persons can petition the Department of Public Utilities for a review.

Mr Roberts also cited 'poor service' at night time, for the three towns, saying that there was only one, or perhaps two men who responded to emergency calls in the three towns.

He cited the other Selectmen of North Reading as being sympathetic to his cause, and named Selectmen McCarthy and Doten in particular.

The proposal was variously received by the Wilmington Selectmen.

John Brooks, who lives in a quite large house, said that it cost him much less than $60 or $70 a month. Mrs Drew wanted to know if Mr

David Hartwell, son of Mr and Mrs Henry Hartwell of Butters Row received his Bachelor of Arts degree from Williams College, Williamston Mass, on June 10th.

Hartwell was on the Deans List, was President of the Senior Class, and was awarded the Naumberg Book Collection Prize. A graduate of Wilmington High School, he majored in English.

Mr Hartwell has received a scholarship at Colgate, for a two year study, and as a Resident Advisor to undergraduates. He will be working for his master's degree Roberts had ever talked with the Reading Light Commissioners.

Roberts said he hadn't yet, but he intended to. First, he said, he had to find out if the Selectmen in the other towns were interested. Rene LaRivee wanted to know 'just what line you are going to take?'

'To say the rates are high is one thing, but what do you propose to do to help on this?'

Roberts told the Wilmington Selectmen that it was his hope that he could find people who were having to pay too much, by personal contact, and through the Selectmen of the other towns, and by other media.

Chairman Black of the Wilmington board observed that 'On the whole I think we have had excellent service' and Brooks said that the Wilmington Board might enquire around to see if anyone was paying 'astronomical bills'.

LaRivee observed that if there was a possibility of saving money for the residents of Wilmington he would be in favor, and Roberts replied to this that: 'We try hard to cut the tax bills, but there are other ways to save money for the people.'

Roberts made a final statement as he left the Wilmington Selectmen that he was primarily interested in the rates, and anxious to know if Reading can lower them, but just as anxious to be proven wrong, if such was the case.

The Wilmington selectmen told him that they would 'leave it up to you to get in touch with us'.

There was very little mention by the Wilmington Selectmen of the work of the former Light Rate Committee.

WILMINGTON METHODIST CHURCH STAFF NAMED

Rev Terry Clay Thomason

The Wilmington Methodist Church makes public announcement today of its ministerial staff for the coming year. The Reverend Terry Clay Thomason, Senior Minister, was recently appointed pastor of the church for the third consecutive year by Bishop James K. Mathews, resident Bishop of the New England Area of the Methodist Church.

The Reverend Joel Clayton Underwood, newly designated Assistant Pastor of the church, will be arriving Friday, June 28th, from Murfreesboro, Tennessee. He brings with him his wife, Helen, and two children, David, 5, and Lydia, 3.

The congregation will welcome the Underwoods with an old fashioned 'pounding' - a Southern tradition of hospitality by which new residents are greeted with welcoming notes and gifts to stock their pantry or refrigerator.

Mr. Underwood graduated with a BA from Duke University and BD from Vanderbilt Divinity School. He will assist Mr. Thomason in all of the pastoral functions of the church, as well as working with the youth and music programs, Mrs. Underwood, a graduate of Middle Tennessee State College, will be teaching in the Wilmington School System this year. Mr. Underwood will assist in leading both the 8:30 and 10:00 o'clock worship services this Sunday morning.

The new assistant minister brings with him a wealth of experience in pastoral leadership and youth work. In 1959 he was appointed to the dual position as pastor of a new congregation and Director of the Wesley Foundation (the Methodist Church on the Middle Tennessee College campus.) Since that time the church has become a fully organized church of over 200 members and has moved into a new building. The Wesley Foundation, which consisted of only one meeting per week, now has developed into a full program of student work and has its own facilities in a newly acquired Methodist Student Center, adjacent to the campus.

The Reverend Willard C. Arnold will assume his duties as Minister of Visitation on August 26. Mr. Arnold is well-known throughout the New England Conference for his exceptional ability and leadership. He has served pastorates in Massachusetts and Vermont, and for six years was the District Superintendent of the Lynn District, supervising the activities of the sixty churches of the Lynn District. He was instrumental in the building of the new sanctuary and fellowship hall of the Wilmington church, which was completed in 1958.

Mr. Arnold, whose home is at 115 Lowell Street, Reading, will assist Mr. Thomason in pastoral calling and will also assist in worship services.
